War Chest

Solicitation In San Mateo County Expected To Raise $215,000 As Quota

Now more than ever San Mateo County's War Chest needs the support of the county's citizenry—both in physical and financial support and here's why:

Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton, chairman of the War Chest campaign which begins October 2 for a two week period, today announced the county's chest quota is $215,000.

This year, unlike last year, ALL of that money must be raised by solicitation in the county. Last year each local quota was reached with the help of a sizeable credit from the State War Chest organization.

"San Mateo County's War Chest is on its own this year," was the way Captain Lorne G. McAloney, executive secretary of the organization, described the campaign.

In announcing the local chest quota, Judge Cotton said:

"This is the second year for a combined War and Community Chest campaign, which includes seven local agencies, namely: Girl Scouts (including five Scout councils), Boy Scouts, Preventorium, San Mateo County Blood Bank, San Mateo County Catholic Charities, Y. M. C. A. and the Salvation Army, also, the War Prisoners Aid, USO, United Seamen's Service and 19 Allied Nations Front.

"With so many public spirited men and women devoting their leisure time to humanitarian, patriotic works in San Mateo county, I know we will have no difficulty in recruiting the number of workers necessary to thoroughly canvass the county in a door-to-door campaign to raise the quota.

"The War Chest does a double work. It raises funds for the local youth and welfare agencies and also raises funds for organizations directly concerned with aiding servicemen and war prisoners, such as the USO, United Seamen's Service and War Prisoners' Aid and for relief in embattled and occupied countries."

Daly City

Tonight, September 14, Daly City's plans for participation in the 1944 War Chest Drive will be mapped at a meeting of division and precinct workers in the home of Mrs. Cecelia Hale, 599 Crocker avenue. Mrs. Clara E. Lane, chairman for the Daly City campaign, will introduce Mrs. Ralph L. Low, head of the Workers' Instruction committee for the San Mateo County War Chest, to the group. Mrs. Low will give a detailed description of workers' duties in the canvass, which will begin, October 2.

Meantime, heads of the local drive expressed their urgent need for more volunteer workers. Anyone who could assist is asked to call Mrs. Lane at RAndolph 4503, Mrs. Mary Crane at RAndolph 6479, Mrs. Hazel Marsh at RAndolph 0690, or Mrs. Hale at DeLaware 9415. The house-to-house canvass will be held during the first weeks in October.

Colma

Catholic women of Colma will meet at the Holy Angels parish hall, San Pedro road, Friday, September 15, at 3 p. m. to discuss their participation in the 1944 War Chest drive, which will begin, October 2, in Colma incorporated and Colma unincorporated. Mrs. Alma Garibaldi, drive chairman, and Mrs. M. Pauline Brown, co-chairman, will be present to assist with organizational details.

Volunteers are needed for Colma's drive and anyone in the locality interested in helping is urged to contact the chairman or co-chairman. Arrangements to handle the house-to-house canvass are being made just as rapidly as possible and the Friday meeting with the parish women is expected to add impetus to completion of plans.

Schedule Two Good Games For Sunday

Taking a 4-run lead in the second inning, the Daly City Juniors went on to lose to the Amazon club, 6 to 5, in the afternoon at the Marchbank park diamond, Sunday, September 10. Earlier in the day the Bayview A. C. had trounced the O'Neills, 6-1, in a return match which followed a tie game the previous Sunday.

Promising contests are on tap for local baseball fans at the park, Sunday, September 17. Bayview A. C. is scheduled to meet the Eagles No. 61 juniors at 12 o'clock, followed by the Daly City Juniors versus the Junior Seals at 2:30 p. m. The little Seals came out winners with a 5-2 score, when they met the local boys three weeks ago.

Colma Tables Ordinance On Hogs

Colma's proposed ordinance to outlaw the "feeding, raising, keeping or maintaining" of any hogs within the city limits was tabled at the regular monthly meeting of the town council, held Monday, September 11. Previous to this action, the board had given the ordinance its second reading to prepare for its enactment.

Patterned after a county ordinance which would remove the hog ranches from the unincorporated areas of San Mateo county, the proposed law had been drawn up to prevent such businesses from seeking locations within the town. Invitations were given for existing operators to appear at public hearings on the matter, August 31 and September 11. At the latter date, representatives of the Cresta ranch and of the Pine Grove Hog company were present, and testified that county officials had not followed through with the promised enforcement of the county law.

Members of the council took the stand that their action was to be a following up of the county enforcement, with no idea of working a hardship on the smaller firms at present operating in the city limits while large businesses of a similar nature are allowed to continue in the county. Upon motion of Councilman Matrup Jensen, the board voted unanimously to table the ordinance.

Mayor Fred Lane presided over the meeting, with other officials present including Councilmen Peter Barsi, Jensen, Paul Delucchi and Bartley Flynn, and City Clerk E. A. Weisenburger, Treasurer Henry Kempf, Health Inspector C. E. Lowe, and City Attorney Charles Gebhardt.

Must Have Been Interested In Music

Valued at $150, a saxophone, marimba, and set of bells were stolen from the administration building of the Jefferson School district, Sunday night, September 10. Superintendent R. L. Crane called in Daly City police to investigate and get a line on suspects. The thief broke into the building by smashing a window.

Several stolen cars were recovered in Daly City by local police in the past several days. Officer Roland A. Petrocchi discovered a Mercury roadster abandoned at Templeton avenue and Irvington street. San Francisco police had broadcast it as stolen and the local department placed it in Daly City Garage to hold for the rightful owner, Edward H. Gouer, 1075 California street, who called for it September 12. Officers August Benassini and James Welsh found a Lincoln sedan parked in front of 343 Irvington street, September 12. NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

In New Guinea

Stephen A. Passafiume, above, reports that it's too hot for clothes but so rainy and muddy you have to wear boots in New Guinea. He's shown running a high speed crane in the snapshot above. A seaman first class, U. S. Navy, Passafiume has been overseas ten months. He's hoping for a furlough in Australia soon. His wife and son are residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Passafiume sr., at 667 San Diego avenue.

News of Passafiume's two brothers in the service includes word that Private Robert Passafiume is convalescing after a long illness in the Hawaiian islands. He has seen action in the Gilbert and Marshall islands and is in the Army.

Leroy Passafiume, U. S. Merchant Marine, has been enjoying a visit at home and at Boulder Creek. His ship was sunk at a French port, during the invasion. He will soon return to sea with the Merchant Marine.

Robert reports meeting Staff Sergeant Benny Ferrando from Daly City, in Hawaii.

Private First Class John R. Maloney, 444 Irvington street, has been presented with the Battle Participation Star.

Private George E. Childs jr., 64 Los Olivos avenue, has been assigned to the Infantry Replacement Training center, Camp Blanding, Florida, after service in the Aleutians.

Technical Sergeant Manley S. Bystrom, who recently won the Air Medal for meritorious achievement in aerial flight in the China-India-Burma theater as liaison pilot, has been at home, 161 Peoria street, on a brief furlough. At the same time, his brother, Bert A. Bystrom, T. M. 2-c is home from the Naval Air base in Washington.

Another graduate of Jefferson Union high school is now on overseas duty—Francis S. Fazendin, U. S. Navy, serving in New Guinea. He took his training at Farragut, Idaho, and before entering the Navy, last November, lived at 35 Hillcrest drive.

Charles W. MacCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. MacCarthy, 365 Bellevue avenue, writes from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to say "thanks" for The Record. He said "I should have written sooner, telling you how much the Daly City Record means when I'm away from home. It just helps to close that gap between here and California."

In May, MacCarthy was selected to attend the Enlisted Full Track Vehicle course of the Field Artillery school in Fort Sill.

Staff Sergeant William R. Miller, Daly City soldier who served many months in the Southwest and Central Pacific theater, has returned home under the Army's Troop Rotation program for a furlough before his reassignment to a station within the United States. He will arrive shortly to visit friends in Daly City. He served with the Infantry overseas.

Daly City Councilmen Hold Brief Session

It took less than half an hour for Daly City's Board of Councilmen to transact its business, Monday night, September 11. Mayor A. J. Gaggero presided over the session which saw no major action of any sort. Councilmen Howard A. McHugh, Eugene V. Lynch, and Edward Dennis were present.

Under communications the board heard a letter, read by City Clerk B. C. Ross, which requested passage of a resolution opposing Proposition No. 12 on the ballot of November 7, 1944. The letter came from the San Mateo County A. F. of L. Political Education committee. The matter was referred to a caucus meeting for further study.

The city clerk was instructed to advise the Daly City Police department to place the character wheel on the fire alarm system at once when calls come in to the department relative to fires rather than investigating the situation first and then turning in an alarm from a street box.

Hundreds Return To Local Schools

Hundreds of Daly City children returned to their classrooms, Monday, September 11, to resume their studies after summer vacation. At Jefferson Union high school, 600 had enrolled, a higher figure than for those in attendance at the end of the spring term. Principal Stanford Hannah addressed the student body at an assembly program to open the fall term at Jeff. The faculty includes thirty teachers.

Evening classes at Jefferson Union high school will begin, Tuesday evening, September 12, with a schedule tentatively including auto shop for continuation students, Americanization, typing, youth leadership, crafts, English for foreigners. Other courses will be offered if sufficient interest is shown. Inquiries may be made at RAndolph 6612. The night school meets Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p. m.

With 1,335 registered the Jefferson School district has more pupils enrolled than last year, according to District Superintendent R. L. Crane jr. Breakdown of the enrollment figures shows 320 at Woodrow Wilson elementary, 277 at Woodrow Wilson primary, 50 at Thornton, 277 at Jefferson, 245 at Pershing, 184 at Crocker. There are 42 teachers on the staff for the six district grade schools.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help parochial school reported a capacity enrollment. Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange conduct the school, which is located at 60 Wellington avenue.

Name Committees For Fall Bazaar

Committees for the annual bazaar to benefit Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, September 29, 30, and October 1, have been announced, and an ambitious program of entertainment is being planned for the 3-day event. Booths will be set up in the school yard, next to 60 Wellington avenue. Everyone is invited to join the parish in the festivities of the bazaar.

Those named to the many committees, ranging from decorations to refreshments, include Mrs. Lucille Marriscoll, Mrs. Elsie Thompson, Miss Barbara Nassano, Mr. Robert Byrne, Mrs. J. Steele, Mrs. J. Schubert, Mrs. William Brush, Mrs. J. Hohl, Mrs. Fred Klingler, Mrs. A. Parmis. (Continued on Page 6)

W. H. Augustus, county clerk, announces that registration for the November 7, 1944, election will close at midnight, September 28, 1944. All persons who are eligible but not yet registered should do so immediately, in order that their affidavits of registration can be forwarded to the clerk's office and processed in time for printing of indexes and arranging for the coming election. Any persons who were formerly registered but failed to vote at the two general elections held in 1942 and who have not since re-registered, should see that they are properly re-registered at their earliest convenience.

Legal qualifications for voting in California require: first, that they be twenty-one years of age and American citizens; second, that they will have resided in the State a year or more, in this county 90 days or more, and be duly registered 40 days or more prior to November 7, 1944.

Following is a list of registration deputies in this community:

Colma—Claude Cattori, 7316 Mission street; E. A. Weisenburger, Colma.

Daly City—B. C. Ross, city clerk, city hall, 75 Wellington avenue; Mrs. Alice Braumoeller, city hall, 75 Wellington avenue; R. G. Davis, 299 Evergreen avenue; John J. Fahey, 338 Irvington street or 3 Wellington avenue; Frank W. Kent, 250 Los Banos avenue; Mrs. Violet Hauptli, 87 San Pedro avenue; Mrs. Josephine McHugh, 247 Oliver street; Mrs. Margaret Pettigrew, 6238 Mission street; Edward R. Trier, 158 Woodrow street.

County Clerk Calls For Election Officers

With the General Election to be held, Tuesday, November 7, about two months away, the San Mateo County Clerk's office is now checking all applications on file from parties interested in serving as election officers, for proper designation as to precincts in which they may serve.

County Clerk W. H. Augustus, in a statement to the press today, warned, "All those who are interested, but who have not already filed, and who wish to make application to serve as Election Officers, should be certain to meet all of the requirements set forth in the application blanks. They will not be eligible to serve if they have been in the employ of the state, county or city, on a permanent basis, within ninety days prior to the election. They must be able to read, write and hear well, and must be registered as residing at the address given in the application."

Application blanks are self-explanatory. In many instances, however, well-meaning people neglect to fill out the blanks properly, and do not answer the few but important questions asked thereon. It is suggested that all interested parties immediately procure application blanks by writing or phoning the Election-Registration department of the county, at the Courthouse, Redwood City, or by calling in person to fill out the blanks, or by writing a letter to the county clerk, stating that they are willing to serve, also stating whether or not they have previously served.

"All applications will be welcomed, but must necessarily be considered in the order in which they are received," said Augustus.

There are a great many vacancies to be filled, throughout the county, due to the formation of new precincts, and because many who previously served as Election Officers have moved away.

It is urgently important that applications be filed as soon as possible, as the county clerk must complete the list for early publication.

Film Has Plenty Of Mystery, Drama

If you are partial to mystery, suspense and excitement in film fare—and who isn't?—then "Gaslight" the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production at the Daly City theatre, is exactly what the doctor ordered. "Gaslight" is perfect war-time entertainment, and is made so by the story and everyone connected with the production of the film.

The photoplay relates how a beautiful young singer, played by Ingrid Bergman, marries her accompanist (Charles Boyer) and moves into the London house where her aunt, a famous singer in her day, was mysteriously murdered.

The film moves rapidly and with a maximum of excitement as Boyer deliberately sets out to drive his wife insane—for purposes which it would be unfair to relate here. You'll have to see for yourself the devilish ingenuity exercised by Boyer, and learn the reasons for it from the edge of your seat in the theatre. The entrance on the scene of Joseph Cotten, as a Scotland Yard man, brings the picture to a gripping climax you'll long remember.

The three stars turn in outstanding performances under the superb direction of George Cukor. And so does every other member of the hand-picked cast which includes such screen notables as Dame May Whitty, Barbara Everest, Heather Thatcher, Tom Stevenson and Halliwell Hobbs, among others.

Arthur Hornblow jr., has produced "Gaslight," which was adapted for the screen by John Van Druten, Walter Reisch and John L. Balderston from a play by Patrick Hamilton.

Mrs. Wall Gives Shower For Sister

Mrs. Lorraine Wall, 599 Evergreen avenue, entertained at a surprise shower and cocktail party at her home, last Saturday afternoon, honoring her sister, Mrs. Tess Sullivan. Mrs. Wall was assisted with her hostess duties by Mrs. Millie Ehling, San Francisco.

The home and dining room were artistically decorated for the occasion and the afternoon was spent playing games. Delicious refreshments were served.

Those attending in addition to hostesses and guest of honor were Mrs. Esther Lorenz, Mrs. Christine Hulme, Mrs. Eleanor McDonald, Mrs. Annette Drury, Mrs. Fay Cotter, Mrs. Blanche Grolimund, Mrs. Elsie Thomson, Mrs. Gertrude Johnstone, Mrs. Grace Bacagalupi, all of Daly City, Mrs. Sylvia Fischer, Belmont, Mrs. Marge Kennedy, Redwood City, Mrs. Clara Tacchi, South San Francisco, Mrs. Marge Sorensen, Alameda, Mrs. Frances Fricke, Mrs. Elsie MacCallum, Mrs. Gertrude LaFortune, Mrs. Celia Thomson, Mrs. Beth Parsons, Mrs. Dorothy Neff, Mrs. Callista Davis, Mrs. June Fricke, Mrs. Dorothy Nute, Miss Sylvia Fischer, Belmont, Miss Hester Blaylock, Miss Alice Lorenz, Daly City, Miss Bernice Daniels, Miss Lorraine Daniels, San Francisco, Miss Audrey Wall and Miss Sheila Sullivan.

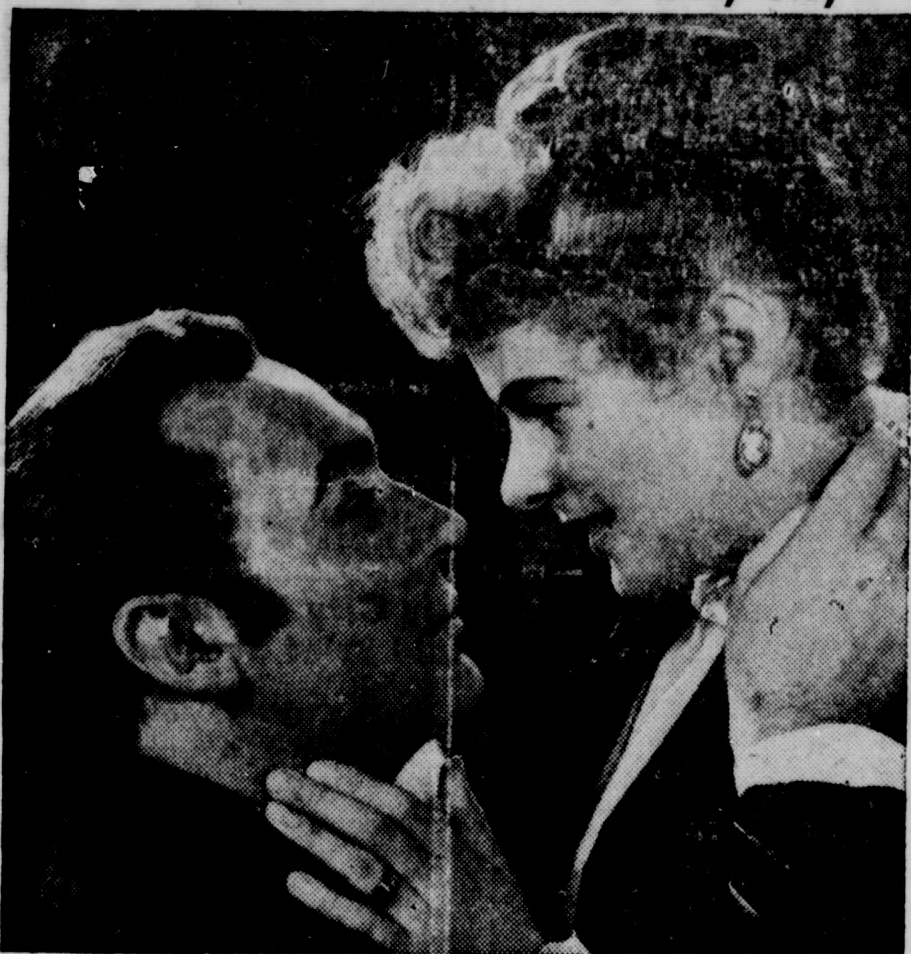

Aid War Fund

On behalf of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and its subsidiaries, Southern California Telephone company and Bell Telephone Company of Nevada, N. R. Powley, president announced today:

"Our directors have approved a contribution of $85,000 to the National War fund, which amount is in addition to our Community Chest contributions, approximating $50,000 annually. This latter amount will be contributed whether or not the Community Chest budgets are included in the War Chests of various communities.

"Our contribution to the National War Fund, inclusive of our contribution to the Community Chests, will aggregate the sum of $135,000. The National War Fund contribution of $85,000 will be allocated consistent with the War Fund quotas applicable to the territory served by our companies. The Community Chest contributions will be made to the specific communities as our companies have done in the past."

Romantic Interlude in New Film at Daly City

Charles Boyer and Ingrid Bergman in a romantic interlude from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Gaslight," which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre. Joseph Cotten is co-starred with them in this story of murder, mystery and intrigue of London of the 1870's. George Cukor directed, and Arthur Hornblow jr., produced the film, which has a supporting cast including Dame May Whitty, Barbara Everest and Angela Lansbury.

Eagles Report Successful Party

Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F. O. E., reports that their house warming, Saturday night, September 9, was a big success. Dancing and refreshments were thoroughly enjoyed by the many members and their friends who attended the party at Little Italy hall, 6229-A Mission street, new quarters for the aerie.

At the September 7 regular meeting of the aerie, Gus Ford was nominated to the post of vice-president, left vacant by the resignation of William Brush. Election and installation of the new officer was slated to take place, tonight, September 14.

The Eagles are making plans for a big class of candidates to be initiated at the September 21 meeting.

Here's Something You Won't Get Back

Tire inspection records, which motorists have been requested to attach to their applications for renewal of "A" gasoline ration books, will not be returned to the motorist it was announced today by Kenneth R. Lowell, acting district rationing executive for the Office of Price Administration.

Along with the new "A" gasoline ration book, each motorist will receive a new Mileage Rationing Record, which will replace the tire inspection record as a form for listing the gasoline rations issued to each automobile, Lowell said.

Since the periodic tire inspection program was discontinued, April 20, 1944, the tire inspection record has been used primarily as a record of gasoline rations issued, Lowell explained.

HERE'S a brand-new example of the teamwork of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Department and Studebaker engineers... It's the latest model of the Army's versatile track-laying vehicle known as the Weasel... This new M29C is just as much at home in water as it is on sand, mud, swamp or solid ground... It not only propels itself in deep water, fully loaded, but it also clambers up and down steep, slippery banks with amazing ease... This new Weasel is built by Studebaker under contract with the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces. It adds another unit of war equipment to a Studebaker list that includes aircraft engines and war trucks.

Junior College Plans Night School

With classwork for the fall semester having started Tuesday of this week, San Mateo junior college will open its evening school program Monday night, September 18, with a large number of courses open to the general public. Registration will take place evenings at the college office on Baldwin avenue, San Mateo.

The Peninsula forum will have the first of the fall series of lectures, September 18, in the junior college auditorium, with Dr. Tully C. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific in Stockton as the first speaker. His talk, "The American Constitution," will start at 7:30 p. m. and is open to the public without charge. September 25, General Paul B. Malone (retired) will talk on the war situation.

Junior college classes are still receiving late registrants, but class work and college activities are rapidly falling into a regular schedule. The students will welcome the new freshmen to the college at a reception dance this Friday evening in the college gym.

Invite Public To Rodeo

Sunday, September 17, is the date selected for the second annual non-association rodeo and horse show to be held near Daly City and Colma under the sponsorship of Avery "Buffalo Bill" Williams, whose grounds are located one mile west of Colma on School street. Bronc and bull riding, steer and team roping, all kinds of races and special events will be featured, according to Williams.

Plans for the show include a good time for everyone, Williams pointed out. He also called attention to the dance which will be held in conjunction with the show, Saturday evening, September 16, at Lovchen Gardens.

TELEPHONE COMPANY REPORTS

N. R. Powley, president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, following the meeting of the board of directors, last week, stated:

"The board declared, for the third quarter, the usual quarterly dividend of $1.50 per share on the Preferred Stock and a dividend of $1.50 per common share as compared with the $1.75 per common share for the third quarter of last year.

"The third quarter preliminary earnings statement issued at this time indicates earnings, after preferred dividends, of $1.63 per common share as compared with the $1.78 per common share earned in the third quarter of last year.

"Earnings are adversely affected in the third quarter by both revenue and expense levels. Gross revenues show marked indications that the influences which have activated the pronounced revenue stimulation are now lessening in their impact with the consequent retardation of revenue increase. The long distance rate reductions which were made effective in the spring of this year, the estimated savings to customers being more than $4,500,000 annually, are likewise having their adverse effect on gross revenues. Expenses have continued to rise throughout the year and reflect both the increased cost of operation and the $6,000,000 annual wage increase which became effective in the fall of last year.

"The war comes first in all of our operations. We realize that the most important contribution that we can now make is to hasten the day of Victory. We have, also, the responsibility of so conducting our work that we have a full realization of the postwar problems. When we all are fortunate enough to have the war behind us, our company faces record construction programs, in character and in amount, which will be of staggering proportions for a number of years. It is vital, therefore, in the continuance of our company meeting its obligations and responsibilities to its employees, to the public and to its investors that its operations be so conducted, and so viewed, that its credit position will be such that it will be able to obtain on reasonable terms, in competition with others in the money market, the large amounts of new capital which it will continue to require.

SELECTIVE SERVICE IN REVERSE

The process of returning veterans to civilian life is an infinitely more complicated procedure than calling men out for military service. The office mechanics alone, involved in the official discharge of the millions now in uniform, are staggering. Major General Lewis S. Hershey, Selective Service director, has estimated that if 1,000 men are discharged every hour, it will take ten months to demobilize 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 men.

Not only must these men be fitted into civilian economy, but as honorably discharged veterans they are endowed with new and extraordinary rights and privileges resulting from military service. They are not the untried civilians they were before they were mustered into bootcamp. They have a new status and a right to know what it involves.

A new 60-page booklet, issued by the Veterans' Administration, lists 56 major benefits to which veterans of this war are entitled. Further, it discusses for the benefit of discharged service men and women the subjects of re-employment, exemption from property taxes, State farm and home purchase programs, unemployment insurance, education, pensions and hospitalization. Additional benefits are provided in the G. I. Bill of Rights recently enacted by Congress.

The booklets are being distributed to committees being organized in virtually all communities to help veterans make the readjustment to civilian life.

When Selective Service goes into reverse, the responsibility resting on such local committees will be as great as that imposed upon draft boards.

"SEE THE WORLD"

Post-war airplane fares low enough to enable Mr. Average Man to "see the world" have passed from a "pipe dream" to a probability with the proposal of one airline company to cut its South American rates by two-thirds.

From Los Angeles to Rio de Janeiro the cost would be $225 per passenger, and from Los Angeles to Buenos Aires, $227. If these rates actually go into effect it looks like post-war air travel is in for a real boom.

Such a boom, however, does not mean that other forms of transportation will be little used. On the contrary, they too will likely thrive. Many people will still prefer to travel by steamer and, of course, the great bulk of the freight will still move by this means.

The same thing applies to land transport. There is little danger that the airplane will displace the family car or other automotive carriers. The intimate view of the country afforded by automobile or bus travel is something that cannot be attained in any other way. And in the movement of freight, trucks have long proved the most flexible means of transportation combining the capacity to handle substantial tonnage with the ability to deliver the goods speedily. The fact that in California commercial trucks handle twice as much intrastate freight as all other types of carriers combined speaks for itself.

Because war travel restrictions have kept most civilians pinned close to home, Mr. and Mrs. America have undoubtedly become travel minded. To some persons, this means "flying down to Rio." To others, it is a leisurely jaunt around the country in a new car.

Whichever it be, Americans are really "going places" after victory.

CHRISTMAS OVERSEAS MAILING

Because of the war, we have a sort of "Christmas in June" situation—or more precisely, Christmas in September and October. This is just another way of saying that it is high time to get into the Santa Claus spirit and do your Christmas shopping for the boys and girls who are overseas.

Gifts should be mailed between September 15 and October 15 if you want to be sure they arrive by December 25. You are urged by the Postoffice department to use great care in addressing parcels. Print clearly and be sure the address is complete. The words "Christmas parcel" should be marked plainly on the outside.

Parcels must not exceed five pounds nor be more than 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined. Intoxicants, inflammable materials and perishable goods are forbidden since they might damage other mail. One parcel a week to the same addressee is the limit.

So, even though it is still early fall, get into the swing of Christmas. Shop and mail early.

Teachers Take Military Training

Thirty-eight selected members of high school faculties from Northern California graduated, September 9, after receiving a week's instruction in military training and tactics at the State Guard Tactical Training school, Fort Cronkhite, Marin county, so that they may better command their California High School Cadet units. Among them was Second Lieutenant Gordon Berendsen, Jefferson Union high school.

The school is under the direction of Brigadier General Ray W. Hays, the adjutant general, and the instructional staff consists of U. S. Army Officers assigned from Northern California Sector, Western Defense Command and the Ninth Service Command, and includes regular instructors of the adjutant general's staff.

The California High School Cadets is a military program sponsored by the California Department of the American Legion and is now entering its second active year. Eighty-three schools represent an enrollment of approximately 13,000 cadets.

Red Cross Reports On '44 War Fund Drive

The final sum collected during the 1944 War Fund Drive of the San Mateo County American Red Cross chapter reached a total of $193,364.30, according to Daniel G. Minto, chairman of the drive. This figure shows that San Mateo county was $40,635.70 short of its quota set by National Red Cross in Washington, D. C.

The sincere thanks of the Red Cross chapter and the War Fund chairman go to those who gave so generously of their time and money to this drive. More than 1300 volunteer workers participated in an effort to achieve the goal set for the county.

The town of Pescadero was awarded the plaque for the third time for having the largest number of individual donations per capita of any section of the county. This community established a record difficult to equal or surpass. Mrs. Norman Steele was chairman of the drive in Pescadero.

The Red Cross will conduct its individual drive for funds during the month of March, 1945, and will not participate in the War Chest drive to be held in October of this year.

RECUPERATING

Andrew Vireno, 6196 Mission street, is recuperating at St. Francis hospital after an operation. Word of his speedy recovery has been sent his two sons in the service, Corporal Andrew Vireno jr., U. S. Army, on overseas duty, and Lawrence Vireno, San Francisco dentist, now stationed at Camp Roberts with the medical corps.

Millions Work For Proposition No. 1

More than five million California men and women are actively enrolled in the ranks of influential organizations unanimously endorsing or adopting resolutions urging the unanimous passage of Proposition No. 1, the World War II Veterans $30,000,000 Home and Farm Bond issue on the November 7 election ballot.

With many additional groups, societies and associations expected to approve Proposition No. 1 at their conventions and meetings during the coming month, 37 organizations have already announced to the Veterans' Farm and Home Committee headquarters, 1006 Merchants Exchange building, San Francisco, their unanimous approval of the proposal.

Two Sisters, Brother Have Reunion In D. C.

For the first time in 24 years, two sisters and a brother met for a reunion, which took place in Daly City, last weekend. Mrs. C. E. Baitinger, 24 East Moltke street, had as guests her sister, Mrs. Ira Barker, Indianapolis, Indiana, and her brother, S. A. Wright, Salinas, California. Last time the trio were together was at Ross, California, nearly a quarter of a century ago.

Mrs. Baitinger has lived in Daly City for the past seven years and in the Bay area for 25 years. Although Wright returned to Salinas with his family, Sunday, after the happy get-together, Mrs. Barker will be here for some time to come.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

There never has been a time when love stories didn't make good reading. One of the most charming recent ones is Nevil Shute's novel, "Pastoral," which is a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for September.

NEVIL SHUTE

This is the story of Peter Marshall, a twenty-two-year-old pilot in the R.A.F. Peter has come back safely from fifty-one bombing missions, without injury to himself, his crew or his plane, a record in this war. In between missions, he amuses himself by going fishing, by getting up early in the mornings looking for badger and fox, by taking bicycle rides. Such relaxing pastimes do a great deal to relieve the increasing tension of his nights. Then he meets a girl.

She is a W.A.A.F., known as Section Officer Robertson, though Peter finds out quickly that her first name is Gervase. Her job is to sit at the controls while the planes are out, and check them off as they report "mission completed" and return to base—or do not return, as sometimes happen. Peter first met her when he came back from a fishing excursion with a fine thirty-three-inch pike, the largest he had ever caught. He was very proud and went searching for someone to admire it with him. But all his friends were busy or disinterested, and when Gervase looked up she saw him standing like a little boy disappointed because nobody would play with him. She got up from her chair.

"I'll come and see your fish," she said, "if I may. Where did you say it was?" That may seem a strange reason to fall in love with a girl, but that is what happened.

Nevil Shute is the author of one other Book-of-the-Month Club selection, "Ordeal," published in 1939, which described what might happen in case an English coastal town was ever bombed—an eventuality that was still considered in the realm of fantasy by most of us. His other novels include "Kindling," "Landfall" and "Pied Piper,"—this latter was very popular here and was also produced as a motion picture.

Besides being a writer, Shute is an expert aviation engineer. In 1937 he started an airplane factory which first saw the light of day in an old garage in Southsea. When he resigned in 1938, the firm was employing a thousand people. At the time of Dunkirk, he joined the Navy, after deciding that he was too old to fly on operations and considering that the time for experiments was over. The Admiralty did not agree with him, and two days later he was put on to experimental work for the Royal Navy and has been there ever since. He is now a Lieutenant Commander.

No Clues Yet In Coupon Case

No clues have been unearthed yet in the case of the 270 coupons stolen from O. P. A. Board No. 83-12-3, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, Friday night, September 1. Although coupons are ordinarily locked in the safe, there were envelopes with valid coupons in them, prepared too late to make the mail, left on one of the desks. The intruder found these when he ransacked the board office after breaking a window to enter.

The burglar evidently cut himself in getting into the office, as there was a trail of blood around the office and to the lavatory window through which he made his exit. The coupons stolen were B-5 and C-5 denominations. Naturally, OPA officials and police are watching for their appearance in the purchase of gasoline.

In addition to the coupons, the burglar took a portable radio and a watch. Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk, made the report of the theft to OPA district offices and the South San Francisco police.

Firemen Extinguish Blaze In Trailer

Three companies of the Daly City Fire department, No. 1, No. 2, and No. 6, were called out, September 11, 5:33 p. m., to extinguish a fire in a trailer at New San Francisco Auto court. Chief Andrew Chesney, Assistant Chiefs Albert Silicani and Arthur Bodien, and Battalion Chief Elmer Kennedy supervised the situation, which was quickly brought under control. The alarm came in from Box 37, Mission street, opposite Citrus avenue.

Sunday, September 10, 3:38 p. m. there was an alarm from Box 16, San Jose avenue and Flounoy street. It turned out to be false and meant a needless turnout for Companies 1, 2, and 4, Chief Chesney and Battalion Chief Kennedy.

Fire broke out at the city dumps, September 8, 11:30 p. m., but Chief Chesney found there to be no danger. He placed a watch over it and allowed it to burn out.

Company 1 and Chief Chesney put out a bad rubbish fire at the back of Eagles hall, September 9, 3 p. m. the same day, at 5:30 p. m., the chief checked on a grass fire at Bellevue and Evergreen avenues. He found that Engine 33, San Francisco, had been called and had the situation under control.

Wallace W. Tharpe Succumbs At Hospital

Wallace W. Tharpe, 209A Irvington street, passed away, last week, at Community hospital. He was 64 years of age and is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Hanson.

Remains were shipped to Nixon, Texas, where funeral services will be held, by W. C. Lasswell and company, Daly City mortuary.

State Support Averages $63.24

State support for the Jefferson elementary school district for last year averaged $63.24 per pupil in average daily attendance in the district, California Taxpayers' association stated today, answering the question, "How much do elementary school districts in California get from the state?"

This is more than double the $28.12 per pupil in average daily attendance provided by the state for 1932-33, the year preceding amendment to the state constitution under which state support of elementary schools was approximately doubled, the association stated.

With the increase in state aid for school districts, the 1933 constitutional amendment carried permission for the state legislature to levy new taxes, among which are the state sales and income taxes, it was pointed out.

In 1943 and again in 1944, the legislature further increased state support of the elementary school districts by 10 per cent, effective through 1944-45.

Canning Center Achieves Rating

Nearly 50,000 cans of meats, vegetables and fruits had been processed in the San Mateo Junior College Community Canning center by the first of this week. The canning center, under Supervisor Lee H. Bissett, has achieved "top pack" rating for all such centers in Northern California, and looms prominently for top-pack among all of the 57 centers in the state.

The canning center operates under supervision of the state Bureau of Canneries, meeting the same requirements as do commercial canneries. Reservations are secured by phoning San Mateo 4-3788, and the canner, experienced or inexperienced, brings only what goes in the can to the center. Other materials and equipment, including cans, knives, pans, are provided at the center. A nominal charge of a few cents a can comes to less than average fuel costs for home canning.

Prime credit for the outstanding record of the canning center goes to Supervisor Bissett and his able staff, including Instructor-Inspectors Roberts, Stark, and Arnold, and Operators Wright, Mercer, Roehr, Stranger, and Reichel.

The canning center will continue to operate through the tomato season, running, within man-power limitations, sufficient hours to continue to meet the community demand.

Many Daly City housewives have taken advantage of the facilities offered at the Jaysee canning center, this summer.

FORD DEALER

in Daly City

IRA C. NEVILLE - National Auto Co.

A PERSONAL INVITATION...

For a long time I have been interested in associating myself with the Ford Motor Company as a dealer. Now, I am offering local motorists the high quality service which is in keeping with the quality the Ford Motor Company builds into its products. We want to help you care for your present car for the duration with Ford Protective Service . . . and we expect to be right here to sell you a new Ford after the war. I am proud of my building, my service equipment and the men and women on my staff. Please accept this personal invitation to come in and see us. You'll find us a friendly organization—you'll like the way we do business.

(Signed) Ira C. Neville

It is a genuine pleasure to welcome this new dealership to the nation-wide family of Ford dealers. This newest member of the Ford dealer organization is well equipped to serve the Ford owners of this community, and to offer Ford Protective Service—which automatically provides your car with expert service attention every thirty days. This periodic Ford service will add immeasurably to the life and smooth operation of your present car. It is friendly, efficient and economical. Only Authorized Ford Dealers offer it.

The Ford Motor Company has built, through the years, more than 30,000,000 cars and trucks. Today, millions of them are still serving the vital transportation needs of the country. One reason is the well-known stamina and reliability which have been built into every Ford product. Equally important is the universally excellent service provided by Authorized Ford Dealers.

30,000,000 CARS AND TRUCKS HAVE BEEN BUILT BY FORD

Grant Dealership To National Auto

Ira C. Neville, new manager of National Auto company, 7360 Mission street, has been granted the Ford dealership for the Daly City and Lakeside, San Francisco, area. For the past 11 years he has been manager of the parts department and office at National Auto company and in assuming charge of the popular Ford agency looks forward to an ambitious post-war sales program.

A. J. Bertini and Fred Pasero, both well known in Daly City business and social life, terminated their copartnership and sold the business to Neville, as of July 31.

For the past 22 months, before taking over managership of the local agency, Neville had been at the Richmond Tank depot for Ford Motor company.

In spite of few cars being for sale due to wartime restrictions, National Auto company is one of the busiest shops in the district with its general auto repairs, parts, and service departments.

Vested Interest

CAMOUFLAGING the identity of last season's basic dress was adroitly effected by CBS actress Phyllis ("Big Town") Creore with the addition of a striped taffeta halter vestee, which may also be worn with a suit. It's an ideal method of bringing the gay new autumn colors into an otherwise monotone wardrobe.

City Denies Reardon's Charges

Denying the charges of James G. Reardon, ousted police chief, the City of Daly City has filed its answer in the superior court as requested by Judge Andrew R. Schottky, September 1, when he overruled demurrers filed by the city and Councilman Howard A. McHugh. Councilman McHugh had not filed his answer, early this week, and the matter has not been set down for a hearing, although a definite date when the case will go to trial was expected by the end of the week.

Judge Schottky gave Reardon his first round in his battle for reinstatement to civil service status and position and arrears in salary when he decided the complaint of the former chief was sufficient to go to trial, following the August 31 hearing.

Must Have Been Interested In Music

ber 6, 6:30 a. m.

Upon checking they found that it had been stolen, according to Oakland police who said the owner, Noah Wright, 856 McArthur boulevard, Oakland, had been trying to recover it since August 30.

Officers were busy with a long list of child-finding and minor accident cases, including these:

September 6, 8:10 p. m., Officer George Savage was called to assist in finding Dolores Weinholz, 9, Dianne Weinholz, 7, 706 Templeton avenue, and Cal Chamberlain, 11, 61 Alexander street. The Highway Patrol found them on Bayshore highway in South San Francisco and returned them to local headquarters. Officer Savage drove them home in the police car.

Officer Benassini found William Graves, age 8 1-2 years, 116 Miriam street, after his family had sent in word that he was lost. He and another lad had gone visiting and simply forgot to come back.

Officer George Hopman took Ferdinand Parquer, 10 years old, 238 Willits street, to Alemany Emergency hospital for treatment when he fell and burned his arm, September 8, 3:53 p. m.

Officer Hopman had barely taken care of the Parquer boy, when a call came in at 4:18 p. m. from Selmi's grocery, 6712 Mission street, that a lad had fallen and hurt his arm in the store. It was Alfred Christensen, 116 Bepler street, who was treated at Alemany Emergency and taken home by the police. He had dislocated his elbow in the tumble.

While stabbing holes in an empty carton with his pocket-knife, Sam Kitton, Camp Daly City, cut an artery in his right thumb. He was taken to Alemany Emergency in the police car for treatment, September 9, 12:15 a. m. by Officer Savage.

Officer Hopman reported at Alemany hospital to take a report on Gale Owens, 433 San Diego avenue, Daly City, who was treated there for a sprained ankle which he received when he caught his heel on the step of a No. 14 streetcar, the morning of September 9.

Property damage only was the result of a collision between Harriett Jo Hagaman, Long Beach, and Lester Louis Long, 3224 San Jose avenue, September 9, 12:50 p. m. on Westlake avenue, 25 feet east of Miriam street. Officer Hopman investigated the incident.

A 1941 Buick sedan ran away in front of 57 Knowles avenue and rammed into the house at 73 Knowles, September 9, 3:20 p. m., damaging the front of the house and bending the car's front bumpers. Owner of the runaway car was Rose Murphy, Hotel Benjamin Franklin, San Mateo. Officer Henry Sundermann jr. made the accident report.

On the same date, at approximately the same time, Officer Hopman was out investigating another runaway. This one, a Plymouth coupe, belonged to James Francis Murla, 57 Gambetta street. It ran down the hill from in front of 447 Irvington street, striking a Plymouth sedan parked on Irvington about 100 feet from Crocker avenue, belonging to Steve Gardella, 98 Crocker avenue. Damage was light.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. James G. Bertucci, Colma, who are the parents of a son born, September 3, and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Olds, 59 Wilson street, whose son arrived, September 7.

recently was promoted from corporal to sergeant in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve.

Daughter of Mrs. Marie McGlumphy, 165 Shakespeare street, she is serving as a clerk-typist for an aviation squadron at the station.

A former employe for the War Relocation Authority in San Francisco, she was graduated from Jefferson Union high school.

15th AAF in Italy—Technical Sergeant A. B. Goodpasture of San Francisco, whose wife lives at 611 East Grand avenue, Clovis, New Mexico, has been awarded the Air Medal at this B-24 Liberator base for "meritorious achievement in combat."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goodpasture, 538 Templeton avenue, Daly City.

The former employee of Barrett and Hilp Building Construction company at San Francisco is flying combat missions throughout the Mediterranean theater of operations as engineer-gunner on a "Lib."

Sergeant Goodpasture was a graduate in 1935 from Alhambra high school, Pasadena, where his family formerly lived.

Edward David McIntosh, son of Mr. Edward McIntosh, 490 Grove street, San Francisco, and Mrs. Elizabeth F. McIntosh, 253 Hillcrest drive, Daly City, received his silver wings, September 8, when he graduated as a flight officer from Marfa Army Air field, an advanced two-engine pilot school of the AAF Training command, it was announced by Colonel A. J. Kerwin Malone, commanding officer.

The new pilot, a former resident of Daly City, completed a course in training in twin-engine aircraft. He was assigned here from Merced Basic Flying school, Merced, California. He is a former student of Jefferson Union high school, Daly City.

The Army Service Forces Training Center, Camp Berkeley, Texas, has announced, this week, the promotion of Corporal Peter S. Silacci, 172nd General hospital, to sergeant. He resides at 50 First avenue, Daly City.

Silacci was formerly at the Pasadena Area hospital, U. S. Army.

Corporal Richard Bolger, son of Acting Police Chief William Bolger, is now back on duty in the South Pacific. Corporal Bolger, U. S. Marine Corps, had already seen plenty of tough fighting against the Japs as he was overseas from March 9, 1943, to February, 1944. After visiting his parents at 43 Risel street, he reported to Camp Pendleton, where he took additional training. It was from there that he was reassigned to overseas service.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued in San Mateo county, recently, to Ralph J. Childress, 23, Daly City, and Merrietta Gwyn, 18, San Diego.

Handy with tools?
This job may be up your alley

This is a good job. And a bit unusual in many ways because it's got just a bit more excitement and real he-man's "stuff" to it than most jobs. The work: Helper in Southern Pacific's big R. R. shops or roundhouses . . . working with skilled craftsmen on locomotives, rolling stock, other R. R. equipment. You don't need to be experienced—just willing. If you wish, you can learn railroad work on the ground floor . . . learn a fine craft from men who know their business. You'll be part of a fine outfit . . . a company whose biggest job still lies ahead: carrying the war load for the huge Pacific offensive. Regular railroad wages. Fine pension plan. R. R. pass privileges. Medical services. Investigate today.

Employees May Use Withholding Receipts

Approximately 30,000,000 employes will be relieved of the work of computing their 1944 income tax by using "Withholding Receipts" for their returns, Joseph D. Numan jr., commissioner of Internal Revenue has announced. Under the new arrangements, the work of filling out the Withholding Receipt, from which the tax is computed, ought to consume no more than five minutes. Fast writers ought to be able to cut this time in half.

A Withholding Receipt, showing total wages paid and total income tax withheld during the year, is required by law to be furnished by each employer to each of his employes on or before January 31. The form of the Withholding Receipt has been revised to include the necessary questions and instructions that will permit most employes to use it as a return.

This form of return may be used by anyone whose total income in 1944 was less than $5,000 in wages and not more than $100 in other forms, such as dividends and interest. A taxpayer using his Withholding Receipt for his return will fill it in and mail it to his local collector of internal revenue by March 15, 1945. The collector will figure his tax, give him credit for the tax already paid, and send him either a bill or a refund for the difference.

A special feature of the new form solves the problem of many husbands and wives as to whether to file separate or joint returns. If the combined income of a husband and wife permits use of the new form they may combine their returns on one receipt, and the collector will figure their tax on either their combined or separate incomes, whichever is to their advantage.

The tax on this form will be figured by the collector from a table that automatically allows about 10 per cent of the employee's total income for charitable contributions, interest, taxes, medical expenses, etc. Therefore the Commissioner of Internal Revenue states, employes should not list deductions for such expenses on their Withholding Receipt. However, an employe whose expenses for these purposes exceeded 10 per cent of his total income may claim his deductions in detail.

Printing of the new form of Withholding Receipts has begun, but it may take a few months before all employers receive their supplies. The new form is being printed in triplicate. The employer gives the employe the first two copies and sends the third to the office of the collector in that district. The first copy, marked "Original," may be filled out by the employe and mailed in as his return. The second copy, marked "Employee's Copy," or "Dupli-

San Francisco, New York Parallel Plans For Postwar Period Of Expansion

Parallel needs and plans for the postwar period for San Francisco and New York, key cities on opposite coasts, are emphasized in a letter sent to San Francisco business and civic leaders recently by Clarence E. Baen, president of the San Francisco Convention and Tourist bureau.

San Francisco has been discussing a new civic auditorium for some time. Mayor La Guardia's Citizens' committee calls a $35,000,000 convention and exhibit hall "New York City's Post War Business Project Number One."

Two factors which make both cities "naturals" for conventions and expositions are: their central locations and numerous hotel rooms in peacetime. San Francisco is the center of the Pacific coast as New York is of the Atlantic. San Francisco's hotel capacity is second only to that of New York.

San Francisco, though popular as a convention city, is undoubtedly denied some meetings by the present civic auditorium's space inadequacies. New York has listed 53 conventions denied it because of inadequate meeting and exposition facilities.

Two proposals have been advanced for San Francisco's new auditorium. The first is for a vast subterranean palace under Civic Center plaza in front of, and joined to the present Civic auditorium by underground ramps.

The other proposal is for inclusion among the buildings that will comprise the World Trade center of a great San Francisco municipal convention and exhibit hall. This plan would facilitate the exhibition of foreign products entering the foreign trade zone.

Cookies to "go out" or to eat at home

SOME EASY-TO-BAKE cookies have a fine double purpose: They "carry well" in lunch boxes, and they're mighty tasty when they are served at home. And there's nothing complicated about baking them. For example:

HONEY ROCKS

4 cups enriched flour	3 eggs
1 tsp. baking powder	1/2 tsp. grated lemon rind
1/2 tsp. soda	1 cup finely chopped walnut meats
1 tsp. salt	1 cup seedless raisins
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups strained honey

Sift flour and measure; sift again with baking powder, soda, salt, and cinnamon. Cream shortening; add honey gradually, beating to combine. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Gradually add flour mixture, stirring until smooth. Add remaining ingredients. Drop by teaspoonfuls on well greased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 15 minutes, or until slightly browned. Remove at once to rack to cool. Makes about 66 2-inch cookies.

What's Cooking From Your Vegetable Garden?

DO you have a victory garden? Then you know the superior flavor of garden-fresh peas, corn, greens, carrots, beans and other vegetables. Science tells us "just-picked" vegetables have all their vitamin content. Vegetables that stand may lose some of this food value.

You grew them. But how do you serve them? There's an art to growing vegetables and an art to cooking them.

Rules for Cooking Vegetables
Here are some rules that will help preserve color, form, flavor, vitamin and mineral content in cooking and serving vegetables. But first, remember to serve salads of uncooked vegetables frequently.

Paré very thin or not at all; prepare just before cooking or serving; do not soak in water; cook quickly, if boiled or steamed; use as little water as possible; salt water slightly; do not use soda, it changes flavor; cook only until tender; do not overcook. Serve boiled or steamed vegetables with melted butter or margarine, cream sauce, cheese sauce or lemon juice.

Lemon Juice for Flavor
Lemon juice deserves special mention here. Easy to add — just cut halves or quarters and squeeze — it often makes all the difference when you are serving vegetables either uncooked in a salad with a lemon dressing or cooked with a lemon garnish.

Indeed a plate of lemon quarters may very well take its place on the table along with the salt and pepper shakers whenever vegetables are to be served. Experiment a bit. See what lemon juice does for different vegetables. This simple-to-add flavor will help to popularize these important foods with the members of your family and should be popular with you, too, since it is the quickest way to "dress" your vegetables.

Note, too, that the lemon juice adds vitamin C to uncooked salad vegetables and restores some of this vitamin to cooked vegetables, which may have had their vitamin C soaked out in the cooking water.

Lemon Buttered Vegetables
Meat points are often all gone. Why not serve a vegetable plate frequently, choosing some of the vegetables given below. Flavor these with the lemon butter for which recipe is given. With an egg or a serving of cheese, a bread and a beverage, you have a balanced dinner.

2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
Blend and serve over any one of the following cooked vegetables: asparagus, lima beans, string beans, beets, carrots, celery, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, spinach and other greens, summer or winter squash. For new potatoes brown butter and add equal amounts of lemon juice and chopped parsley.

Urge Using Seals On Overseas Gifts

"Probably no other token from home could better indicate to service men and women that the folks at home are carrying on than the presence of the familiar gay Christmas Seals on Christmas packages from their loved ones," was declared today by Past Commander John N. Blood of the Twenty-sixth American Legion district.

Commander Blood said that he had been advised by the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health association that a number of the familiar Christmas Seals will be made available in advance for persons wishing to use them on gifts going to the fighting men and women overseas.

"This is a splendid idea," said Dr. Blood, "and will serve as a symbol indicating that the same generous America is awaiting the return home of its sons and daughters."

The county tuberculosis association said that the supply of the seals for the overseas gift mailing between September 15 and October 15 are ready now at the office at 115 South Ellsworth avenue, San Mateo. A postal card ordering the seals will bring the seals by return mail. A phone call to San Mateo 3-6274 will dispatch the seals more quickly.

Continue Drive Against Vandalism

Public participation in the protection of road signs and the immediate reporting to proper authorities of any act of road sign vandalism, was urged today by Mrs. Bessie Hayes, executive secretary of the San Mateo County Traffic Safety commission.

The call was made in connection with the recently launched campaign against mutilation and destruction of warning and directional road signs in San Mateo county. The campaign, headed by the San Mateo County Traffic Safety commission, has been joined by the Engineering Department of the County of San Mateo and by the Public Safety Department of the California State Automobile association.

"It is only through public support that an effective campaign can be carried out against the increasing amount of road sign vandalism in this county," said Mrs. Hayes. "Because these signs are designed as a safety and protection measure and as a convenience to all of us, it becomes our patriotic duty to help protect these signs and to report any act of vandalism. These signs, many of them irreplaceable because of wartime shortages of materials, belong to all of us and when a few people mutilate or destroy them it means an unnecessary expense to the taxpayer."

The road signs are purchased by the county or the state and are installed, maintained and repaired without additional expense as a public service by the California State Automobile association. A reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone who maliciously damages or destroys these signs is offered by the Automobile Association.

Attention was called by Mrs. Hayes to Section 474 of the California Vehicle Code which prohibits, under penalty of a $50 fine or five days jail sentence, any person damaging or destroying any official traffic sign, signal or device.

Yes, dog days are past, but don't forget the hot dogs that your teen-agers love are point free. Easy to prepare and popular with the whole family, Mrs. America will find them easy on both the ration book and pocketbook.

With nearly all processed vegetables removed from rationing after September 17, Mrs. America will be able to spend her precious blue points for fruits and juices which still require blue points. Acting with speed, the OPA removed all processed vegetables except tomatoes and tomato catsup from rationing when the War Food Administration revealed supplies of those canned items were adequate to warrant such action.

SHOES — $200,000 A PAIR. That's inflation! That's actually what you would pay today for a pair of $6 shoes in Greece where inflation has run wild! In Greece, housewives are not reminded to check ceiling prices on their purchases—there are no ceiling prices—the sky's the limit! But here in America we have price control and it's up to us to keep it working. Check your ceiling prices — and pay no more!

Having trouble convincing your son or daughter he should give up his shipyard job and return to school this fall? No less authority than the Department of Labor asks parents to stress the fact that high school sons and daughters can do more good in these critical times by keeping in the groove and getting the education they need for the future security of the country.

Skies may be blue, but not ration tokens after October 1, OPA announces, for after that date blue tokens will be discontinued and blue ration stamps alone will be needed for the purchase of canned fruits and juices, canned tomatoes, catsup and chili sauce. Food point values will be set up in such a way that most items remaining under rationing will be worth 10 - 20 or 30 points, enabling ling housewives to use their 10-point blue stamps without change being needed. The points to keep in mind are these, Mrs. America:

1. You may use blue tokens just as you've been using them until September 17.
2. After that time you will receive no blue tokens in change.
3. And use all your blue tokens by the last day of September, because after that date they are no good.
4. The last two weeks in September—September 17 through September 30, to be exact—we can spend our blue points only in groups of ten.

as possible. OPA said that future food values will be arranged so that most items will have point values in multiples of 10. Seventeen foods will be removed from the blue stamps ration list after September 17.

Seventeenth District, CCPT, Meets For First Fall Term Session, Sept. 21

Thursday, September 21, Seventeenth district, California Congress of Parents and Teachers will hold its first session for the fall term at the First Methodist church, Howard avenue and El Camino Real in Burlingame. Registration at 9:45 a. m. precedes the call to order by Mrs. L. G. Evans, district president, for the annual school of information. Directors in charge of the program are Mrs. Raymond Ellis, department of organization, and Mrs. Charles Rayburn, department of extension.

Mrs. J. J. Garland of Menlo Park, president of the C. C. P. T., is to be speaker of the day. Action of the California Congress on three propositions for the November ballot will be interpreted by Mrs. Garland. A discussion period to clarify questions on this vital legislation will follow.

Information for all departments will be given by Mrs. George Beanston Jr., of San Francisco, state chairman of northern field service. Mrs. Beanston will present the "P. T. A. Work Book" with a comprehensive outline of instructive material. Instead of separate classes, department directors will bring specific details and literature for the new term.

A 12:30 p. m. luncheon, provides an intermission for the day's program. Reservations may be made to Mrs. Clifford Simms of Burlingame. Interested newcomers to San Mateo county are especially invited to attend, while all local presidents and chairmen are urged to make early reservations.

Seventeenth district year books listing officers and chairmen for 1944-1945 and unit information will be put on sale for the first time. The annual budget is to be presented for adoption. Messages from the Office of Price Administration, the San Mateo County War Chest, and reports by the district president are programmed.

Featured department members are: organization—Mrs. George Woodside, association standards; Mrs. Lloyd Schwab, exhibits; Mrs. Frank Garelick, magazines; Mrs. F. L. Knuepfer and Mrs. Edward Styskel, finance and budget. Extension—Mrs. M. G. Strohmeier, membership; Mrs. Stella L. Jensen, life membership; Mrs. Floyd Huff, P. T. A. extension; and Mrs. W. J. Evans, student welfare.

Sept. 15 Deadline For Third Quarter

Friday, September 15, is the last day for taxpayers to make their third quarterly payment or amend the Estimated Declaration in this the third quarter, or September income tax period, Collector of Internal Revenue Harold A. Berliner reminds taxpayers.

Payments may be made by personal check, money order, or cashiers check. At least one half of the amount, as shown to be due on the statement mailed from the Internal Revenue must be paid, Collector Berliner said. Checks received in letters post-marked September 15, will be considered paid currently.

Colma P. T. A. Selects President

Mrs. Ruth Rowley, 19 West Cavour street, has been selected to head Colma P. T. A. for the coming term. She was elected to the presidency at a special unit meeting, Tuesday, September 5, filling the place left vacant when Mrs. Dorothy DeLeon resigned to go east.

The public is reminded of an invitation to attend the annual night whist of Colma P. T. A., Friday, September 22, at Holy Angels hall, San Pedro road. Mrs. Gertrude Stanghellini is chairman for the card party. Playing will begin at 8:30 p. m.

YOU LIKE LIVING?

You like living?

Well, then don't eat clams gathered in any part of the California coastal waters. You have the word of the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare that they're deadly poisonous at this time. In case you're interested in the why of the matter the health department explains that clams are unfit for consumption due to a poisonous marine insect prevalent in the feeding grounds now. Anyhow the really important point is: "Just don't eat any."

Mussels along the California shore are also dangerous now. The health department will notify the public when it is safe to gather clams and mussels to eat.

THIS CALL FOR HELP NEEDS YOUR ATTENTION

Maybe you're one of those people who doesn't mind working if there's really LOTS to do, stacks of untackled detail to whip, so much to accomplish that every person's effort really counts...

If you are, there's a job for you as a volunteer at O. P. A. Board No. 83-12-3, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, where without additional help there will be no hope of getting the thousands of A-books into the mails to motorists before September 21, valid date for the new coupons. The regular staff and volunteers have been working, literally, day and night to get the task completed but those mounds of "unstuffed" and unsealed envelopes call for additional help.

It isn't necessary to call ahead. Just come down and the board will greet you with glad cries as they put you to work practically before you have an opportunity to get your hat and coat off.

Daly City volunteers who'd like to work afternoons have been offered a ride to and from the board offices by Mrs. Mable Stubbles, regular volunteer, 821 Brunswick street, DElaware 1695. "Don't be afraid too many helpers could show up," said Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk. "Fifteen or twenty could assist each evening and only begin to make inroads on the stackup here."

Just because the lights are burning these evenings in the board office it doesn't mean it's open to the public—just to volunteers. In fact, the local board urges fewer telephone and office calls when matters could be as readily handled by mail.

In addition to the volunteers needed for the special A-book job, regular volunteer workers are again sought. Only a small paid personnel is provided—too small to cope with the needs of thousands of residents under its jurisdiction without the assistance of those willing to devote time to this important war service work.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.
